CM Afridi to lead PTI's street mobilisation drive

Haleem Adil says KP chief executive will tour Karachi and other cities from Jan 9 to 11

By Imran Ayub

KARACHI: The Pakistan Tehreek-i-Insaf (PTI) is set to ignite a fresh wave of political activity in Sindh as Khyber Pakhtunkhwa Chief Minister Sohail Afridi embarks on a three-day tour of the province from Jan 9 to 11, aimed at energising the party's newly launched street movement in Karachi and other cities seeking the release of incarcerated former prime minister Imran Khan.

The announcement was made on Monday by PTI Sindh President Haleem Adil Sheikh during a press conference at party headquarters, Insaf House, where senior leaders vowed to take Imran Khan's "clear and unequivocal" message directly to the people.

Framing the tour as a turning point, Mr Sheikh said Imran Khan had personally entrusted CM Afridi with the mission of mobilising the masses and challenging what the party described as an assault on the public mandate.

"PTI is not a party of one province or one city. From Karachi to Kashmore, from Hyderabad to Thar, Imran Khan's message will echo through the streets of Sindh," he added.

According to the announced schedule, CM Afridi will depart from Islamabad on Jan 9 and arrive in Karachi at around 11am, where he will be received by party workers and supporters. A rally will then accompany him to Insaf House, followed by a series of meetings with party leaders and delegations.

His Karachi engagements include interactions with traders at the Federation of Pakistan Chambers of Commerce and Industry, a Meet with the Press at the Karachi Press Club, and street movements across districts South, Korangi and Malir.

He is also expected to meet incarcerated PTI workers, which the party says underscores its campaign narrative of resistance and sacrifice.

The momentum will carry into Jan 10 as CM Afridi travels to Hyderabad. On his route, he will be welcomed in Jamshoro by Sindh United Party President Syed Zain Shah.

The Hyderabad leg features street protests in Kotri, addresses to the High Court Bar Association and Press Club, meetings with journalists, intellectuals and farmers, and a gathering at Insaf House Hyderabad.

An ISF convention and city-wide street mobilisation are also planned before CM Afridi returns to Karachi later that night.

On Jan 11, the focus shifts back to Karachi, with organisational meetings, media talks and street movements planned in District Central, Keamari, West and East.

The KP chief minister will also visit Mazar-i-Quaid, where he is expected to address supporters, while the PTI Youth Wing launches a special mobilisation drive.

The PTI Sindh chapter president said that a meeting between the chief ministers of KP and Sindh is expected on Jan 12, pending official confirmation.

He added that senior PTI leaders, including Secretary General Barrister Salman Akram Raja, ministers, and parliamentary leaders, will accompany CM Afridi throughout the tour.

Warning against any obstruction, Mr Sheikh said PTI hoped the Sindh government would avoid "fascist tactics," stressing that public mobilisation was a constitutional right.

HALEEM Adil Sheikh speaks, alongside others, at the press conference.—PPI

Declaring February 8, 2024 a "black day", he said the party was united and ready to intensify its struggle for judicial independence and Imran Khan's release.

Suspect gets bail in credit card theft case

By Our Staff Reporter

KARACHI: Armaghan Qureshi, prime suspect in the Mustafa Aamir murder case, has obtained post-arrest bail in a credit card data theft case.

However, several other cases against him are still pending before the courts.

Armaghan was held in February 2025 after an encounter with the CIA in which two policemen were wounded when the suspect resisted his arrest in connection with the kidnapping for ransom of Mustafa, 23, who was allegedly murdered by his friends — Armaghan and Sheraz — in Defence Housing Authority (DHA) on January 6, 2025.

According to the final chargesheet, Mustafa's body was discovered in the trunk of his car, which was torched and found in the Hub area of Balochistan.

After Armaghan's arrest in the murder case, law enforcement agencies implicated him in multiple other cases, including the data theft case, which was registered by the Federal Investigation Agency (FIA) on April 16, 2025.

On Monday, a judicial magistrate (South) took up the bail plea filed by defence counsel Khurram Abbas; however, despite an earlier warning that the bail application would be heard and decided strictly in accordance with the law in the event of non-appearance, the prosecutor representing the FIA did not turn up before the court.

Subsequently, after hearing counsel Abbas, the court allowed the post-arrest bail plea against a surety bond of Rs100,000 along with PR bonds.

Arguments sought on maintainability of plea against ban on rickshaws

By Ishaq Tanoli

KARACHI: The Sindh High Court (SHC) on Monday sought arguments about the maintainability of a petition filed against further ban on the operation of rickshaws on various more major thoroughfares of the city.

A two-judge constitutional bench of the SHC headed by Justice Adnaul Karim Memon directed the lawyer for the petitioner to come prepared for arguments after a week.

Citing the Sindh chief secretary, transport & mass transit department secretary, Karachi commissioner, DIG traffic and others as respondents, the All Orangi Qingqi & CNG Rickshaw Association has petitioned the SHC impugning further restrictions imposed by the commissioner, completely banning all types of rickshaws from plying on around 25 major roads of the provincial metropolis.

The petitioner asserted that initially operation of rickshaws had been banned in April last year on 11 major roads of the city and such restrictions were extended to 14 more thoroughfares last month.

At the outset of the hearing on Monday, the counsel for the petitioner argued that more restrictions had been placed on the operation of the rickshaws without consulting the petitioner.

When the bench asked the lawyer to inform it about the orders/notifications being challenged, he contended that the authorities concerned were issuing new orders on the subject issue almost on a regular basis.

The bench directed the lawyer to satisfy it about the maintainability of the petition at the next hearing to be fixed after a week.

It also asked the counsel to come papered at the next hearing and further apprise it about the notifications/orders being impugned through that petition.

The petitioner had also approached the SHC against the initial ban imposed in April and in November, but the SHC had disposed of the plea after comments were filed by the respondents.

Pakistan can't move forward without govt based on people's mandate: MWM

By Our Staff Reporter

KARACHI: Majlis Wahdat-i-Muslimeen (MWM) chief Senator Allama Raja Nasir Abbas on Monday said that Pakistan was facing a deep political, economic and constitutional crisis, stressing that the country could not move forward without a government formed based on the people's mandate.

Addressing a press conference at the party's provincial office, Allama Abbas said that national institutions, including the National Assembly and the Senate, had lost their effectiveness, adding that public trust had eroded further after the 26th and 27th constitutional amendments.

Rampant inflation and unemployment had pushed ordinary citizens into severe hardship, while law and order and economic conditions continued to deteriorate, he further said.

The MWM leader expressed serious concern over alleged police encounters in Punjab, claiming that hundreds of people had been killed and thousands of innocent individuals were languishing in jails. He also highlighted Karachi's crumbling infrastructure and expressed solidarity with families of those who had lost their lives due to broken roads and open manholes. He demanded better facilities for residents of the country's economic hub.

Calling corruption a systemic issue, he said accountability of rulers was essential. Referring to reports attributed to the International Monetary Fund, he claimed that corruption amounting to trillions of rupees had taken place, while the public continued to suffer.

Province-wide strike call for 9th

sector despite difficult circumstances.

The speakers made it clear that if there is any flaw or mistake at the individual level, it is unfair to use it against the entire private education sector.

The Grand Alliance leaders strongly demanded that the Sindh Chief Minister Syed Murad Ali Shah and Education Minister Syed Sardar Ali Shah play an immediate role, understanding the sensitivity of the situation, and instruct the ACE to adopt a dignified and effective approach to implement the decision of the esteemed court, in which the verification process should be completed through the Directorate of Private Institutions and direct visits to schools should be avoided.

Finally, while informing about their future course of action, the speakers said that a new application will be filed in the esteemed court to stop the ongoing verification process by the Anti-Corruption.

Plans for joint protests were also shared on the occasion. Parents and school administrations in all districts of Sindh will hold protests from Jan 6 to 8. Private educational institutions across Sindh will also observe a black day on Jan 8. Finally, all private schools and colleges across Sindh will also observe a complete strike on Jan 9.
